ISSUES DRAWN BY CITIZENS TICKET AT EVERY MEETING

Rowlett Paine and Other Candidates Puncture Williams Record and Show Old Political Gang His Supporters.

Rowlett Paine and the other candidates on the Citizens' League ticket are beginning to get the attention of the voters to their claims that only by the election of their ticket can the people of Memphis secure any different kind of city government from that they now have and under which they have suffered for the last five years.

They point to the fact that J. J. Williams and his associates have the absolute support of the present city administration with all that it stands for in the way of factional politics, corruption in administration and an era of high taxes and extravagance.

They point out that J. Williams is posing as an advocate of law enforcement and obedience to the law, and that at the same time is running as a candidate for mayor when he knows that under the law he is not eligible to hold the office.

They have publicly charged in recent campaign speeches that Mr. Williams registered and voted in DeSoto county, Miss., in 1915, thereby publicly declaring himself a citizen of that state, where he was once a resident.

They have referred to the disgraceful conditions in Memphis during his former administration as mayor, which resulted in an open gambling war and culminated in the DeSoto street tragedy in which several men were killed.

They have charged that every policeman in Memphis is busy for the Williams ticket and have charged also that gamblers and other law violators are contributing to the Williams campaign fund.

Mr. Williams has not thus far attempted to answer these charges.

He is making his usual gum-shoe campaign, but under his usual custom, he has found it necessary to appear personally at several rallies recently although he said a week ago that he did not propose to make any personal campaign.

Speakers for the candidates on the Citizens' League ticket are stressing in every campaign speech the fact that there is not a politician on that ticket, but that all are men who have made a personal success in their chosen line of business or profession and they are men who can be relied upon to keep every promise they make.

The attendance at the rallies held last week for the Citizens' ticket has shown a constantly increasing interest in the issues of the campaign, particularly among those who sincerely wish a new order of things in Memphis, actual law enforcement, an efficient city government, lower taxes and ample provisions for the support of the city schools.

The Citizens' League ticket will hold a small rally Friday night at Joseph place and Decatur street and a precinct rally for the third precinct of the 10th ward at R. H. Allen's home, 1114 Union avenue.

A big rally for the 23rd, 22d and 8th wards is planned for Bleckford park Monday night, with a number of speakers in addition to the five candidates.

MRS. MAY COULD NOT WORK

Made Well and Strong by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

Columbia, Pa.—"I was very weak and run down and had dragging-down pains and pains in my back. I could not get around to do my work and had to sit down and rest often during the day. I saw Lydia E. Pinkham's Compound advertised in the papers and read the testimonials, so I thought I would try it. Now I am healthier than I ever was in my life, and can recommend it to any woman who suffers as I did."—Mrs. ELIZABETH MAY, R. F. D. No. 1, Columbia, Pa.

The reason Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound is so successful in overcoming women's ills is because it contains the tonic, strengthening properties of good old-fashioned roots and herbs, which act on the female organism. Women from all parts of the country are continually testifying to its strengthening, curative influence, and the letters which we are constantly publishing from women in every section of this country prove beyond question the merit of this famous root and herb medicine.

SAYS HER ADVISER IT

Memphis Woman Is Relieved of Twelve Years' Trouble by Taking Tanlac.

"I have received more benefit from Tanlac than from any other medicine I have ever taken," said Mrs. C. W. Wreford, wife of the well-known ex-steamboat captain, and who lives at 881 N. Seventh street, Memphis, Tenn.

"For ten or twelve years," she continued, "I suffered from an awful case of indigestion. I had been troubled with a weak stomach from the time I was a girl and often suffered agonies from gas on my stomach, and twice I had terrible attacks of acid indigestion that nearly killed me. For weeks every thing I would eat hurt me, and even water would burn in my stomach. Then I had an attack of the grip, from which I recovered so slowly that I asked my doctor about taking Tanlac. He said, 'Yes, try it; for it can't do you any harm.'"

"I had no appetite at all and was eating nothing but gruel, but after taking two bottles of Tanlac my appetite picked up and I continued to improve right along, eating most anything I wanted without any inconvenience afterward. I have never had the trouble with my stomach since I began taking Tanlac, and it certainly has helped me wonderfully and I can't help believing it is a great medicine."

MATHEWS MAKES PLEA FOR GOOD CITIZENSHIP

The exercise of the right of franchise and the fulfilling of duty for jury service on the part of citizens will assure the protection of personal as well as public safety was the message delivered to the Wholesale Credit Men's association by A. Grant Mathews, clerk of federal court, at its banquet Thursday night. The mad rush for the dollar makes many citizens forget their duty as citizens and voters next to the duty of the homes should be taken more seriously than the shopping trip.

A cabinet performance by the pupils of Miss Irene Sturza followed the banquet. Songs were sung by Miss Norma Ford and Jesse C. Dean, accompanied by T. J. Porbie. Dancing later was indulged in.

At the next regular meeting of the association C. P. J. Moore will be the principal speaker.
